

The FCC needs to leave the NJ do not call law in place. I enjoy my privacy and the fact that I no longer get disturbed with sales calls. If I wanted to recieve unwanted calls than I would not have put my number on the do not call list.